New Day, New Me is a devotional journal designed to help those in recovery--and everyone is in recovery from something--develop, strengthen, or renew a relationship with God. It's essential to depend on someone, or something, other than ourselves.

Daily devotion, prayer, and meditation time are critical components of maintaining sobriety and building a strong foundation with God--free indeed!

Just as our physical bodies need daily nourishment, we also need spiritual food every day to withstand life on life's terms. New Day, New Me incorporates scriptural references with practical, spiritual teachings that can be applied to everyday life circumstances.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

In recovery himself, and part of a faith-based recovery ministry, Serenity Village, for 10 years, MIKE SHEA has written in these pages essential, yet practical, tools for those who are sick of being sick, and tired of living beneath what God has for them. His love for his wife, Peggy, and their eight adult children, and eleven grandchildren come second only to his love for God. His heart's desire is that this devotional journal will be your doorway to knowing you can never do anything to get God to love you more, or less. His love is unconditional. Mike lives in Minnesota and is currently working on a 365 Daily Recovery Devotional.

Every emotion of the heart is reflected in the Psalms with words that express deep and strong feelings. The Psalms provide comfort and joy, leading you to the place where worship flows.

When discouraged or downcast, you can take new strength from reading these uplifting poems. Their thunder will stir you, and sweet melodies move you into the sacred emotions of a heart on fire.

As you reflect on these devotional readings, allow your own expression of faith and worship to stream onto the lines of this beautiful journal.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

LAURA HARRIS SMITH and her husband, Chris, are the founding pastors of Eastgate Creative Christian Fellowship in Nashville, Tennessee. Laura has been in television since age 3, eventually becoming a host on the Shop At Home TV Network in Nashville. Laura is a published poet, the author of multiple books, and speaks and ministers internationally across denominational lines. Her book Seeing the Voice of God: What God is Telling You Through Dreams and Visions has risen to the top of Amazon's Best Sellers List and held the #1 spot in several Christian Categories, with its Kindle version as #2. Married for 30 years, Chris and Laura have 6 children—all home schooled—and a growing list of grandchildren.

A beautiful English garden overflowing with cascades of flowers, alive with the fluttering and floating of birds and butterflies and awash with fragrance—this is the life hoped for. A garden of perfection with perfect weather, abundance, and season after season filled with only delights. A garden of comfort. A garden of joy. A painting one could have walked into and lived dreams of a perfect life.

But life's garden is not a perfect English garden. Yet within it, God has painted pictures of faith, hope, love and, yes, even correction in the places it's needed. A Garden of Hope illustrates lessons that cannot be painted with a paintbrush; they are painted instead with words. Those who read these words see God and realize He is everything they need. Life that seems so imperfect is full of beauty, for it has been perfectly designed as an invitation for us to know God.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

SANDY LYNAM CLOUGH is both an author and an artist. She has written or illustrated 28 gift books and sold over one million of these books. A fourth generation artist, Sandy got her earliest art training and encouragement from her artist father and from her mother. She began selling her paintings as an art major at Mississippi College. Sandy has a Master's Degree in Art Education, but her heart is in painting instead of teaching. Mississippi College has twice named her "Art Alumnus of the Year." Sandy Clough creates beautifully realistic paintings and designs that are both fresh and contemporary, yet her painting is fine art. This combination is uniquely Sandy Clough and appears on many licensed products. Both her art and her writing are inspired and grounded by her Christian faith.
